

Major Question : #8

Ch. 8

Geography : a Major cause of thriving violence b/c there is no police force that can patrol such a large and secluded area.

Colonization : "Machismo" - sense of Male superiority from Europe. Unequal treatment and division of assets

Land Disputes : people trying to secure & protect their own land

Military Rule : no set legal rites → leads to guerrilla movements & fighting. Police brutality, "Gun is the law."

Discrepancies : between far-away gov't rule. So many different states, but they all get different funding, leading to inequality.

Cycle of Violence : people very set in their ways, Police influence doesn't really help b/c as soon as they leave things go back to how they were before.
