

About MRU
News
Current Students
Prospective Students
Faculties and Administration
Staff

Start » Faculties and Administration » Faculties » Faculty of Law » Visiting Lecturers

- About faculty
- Departments
- Study Programmes
- International Relations and Studies
- International Summer School
- Research
- News
- Visiting Lecturers
- Contacts
- Service of Law

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOLS

elsa

The European Law Students' Association
MYKOLO ROMERIO UNIVERSITETAS

Faculty of Law

Archive

Visiting lecturers

Fulbright Scholar and Former Erasmus Student Back at MRU for Criminal Law Lecture
Nov. 25th, Fulbright scholar and MRU Erasmus student Lydia Tobiašova was back at the University presenting a lecture on Slovak Criminal Law reforms. Tobiašova, herself an Erasmus student at MRU in 2004-2005, lectured at MRU, in what is a first for a former Erasmus student. She came, studied and now came back to MRU as an Asst. Prof. in the Law Faculty of Bratislava's Comenius University. (In PHOTO: Tobiašova during the lecture)

Read more ➤

Intl Arbitration Lecture by Slovak Assist. Prof. JUDr. Chovancova Nov. 23-24th
November 23rd-24th, Slovak PanEuropean School Assist. Prof. Katarina Chovancova, PhD. presented two lectures in English on International Arbitration issues. The first lecture, "UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules," was held on Nov. 23rd. The second lecture, "ICC Arbitration Rules," was held on Nov. 24th.

Fulbright Scholar Lectured on Chinese Confucian/Legalist Thought - Nov. 17th
November 17th, Fulbright professor sinologist Deborah A. Sommer lectured on, "How to Steal a Sheep: an Introduction to Confucian and Legalist Thought in China." Dr. Sommer, has considerable experience living, working and teaching abroad in mainland China and Taiwan since the mid-1980's. She is a religion professor at Gettysburg College and has earned a Fulbright award to teach in Lithuania.

Lecture: State Responsibility for Harm Done by Intl Corporations - Nov. 12th
November 12th, Poland's Warmia and Mazury Olsztyn University lecturer Magdalena Sitek lectured on the topic of "State Responsibility for the Harm Done by International Corporations."

Lecture on Insolvency of International Corporate Groups - October 29th
October 29th, Ghent University Professor H. De Wulf lectured on "Insolvency of International Corporate Groups," at Mykolas Romeris University. A delegation from the Law Faculty of Ghent University, including Piet Williams and Prof. Somers, visited MRU from Oct. 28th-31st. They discussed cooperation possibilities with MRU's Law Faculty.

OSCE Special Rep & Dutch Ambassador van Veldhuizen Lectured on Sept. 21st
September 21st, Ambassador Ida van Veldhuizen, a special representative to the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), lectured at Mykolas Romeris University. Her topic was, "The Legal Status of International Organizations." She shared her long-time experience & work in international organizations with MRU students, as well as discussed OSCE's influence and status. (In the PHOTO: Ambassador van Veldhuizen)

Czech Masaryk University Academics Lectured on Tax, Criminal Law Issues Sept. 19th-24th
September 19th-24th, four lecturers from the Czech Masaryk University lectured at Mykolas Romeris University (MRU) on the Czech legal system and tax law.

Read more ➤

Italian Law Faculty Researcher Lectured on International Human Rights Sept. 15th
September 15th, Italian Law Faculty Researcher Francesco De Santis from the University of Naples Federico II, concluded his series of lectures on International Human Rights in English at Mykolas Romeris University. De Santis is a specialist in human rights law.

Back

Person in charge of information content Rima Ažubalytė
 Person in charge of information announcement Agnė Kančialskytė
 Tel. (370 5) 271 4561 E-mail address tf@mruni.eu
 Last update 2010-11-25