

Workshop in Experimental Economics
April 6-8 Vilnius, Lithuania

Sponsored by
ISM University of Management and Economics and
International Foundation for Research in Experimental Economics (IFREE)

Wednesday, April 8th, 2009

A workshop for faculty and doctoral students from Eastern & Central Europe

Agenda

- | | |
|---------------------|--|
| 8:30-9:00 | Registration |
| 9:00-10:30 | Introduction to Experimental Economics:
What are they and why do we do them?
Laboratory Session (Room # 207) and Lecture (Room # TBD):
Bart Wilson, Chapman University |
| 10:30-10:45 | Coffee Break
Room # 316 |
| 10:45-12:00 | Two Period Investment Game
Laboratory Session (Room # TBD):
Bart Wilson, Chapman University |
| 12:00-13:00 | Lunch
Room # 316 |
| 13:00-14:45 | Electric Power Auctions
Laboratory Session (Room # 207) and Lecture (Room # TBD):
Rimvydas Baltaduonis, Chapman University |
| 14:45-15:00 | Coffee Break
Room # 316 |
| 15:00- 16:30 | Asset Markets
Laboratory Session (Room # 207) and Lecture (Room # TBD):
Rimvydas Baltaduonis, Chapman University |
| 16:30-17:00 | Discussion: What do we learn from economics experiments?
(Room # TBD) |
| 17:00-18:30 | Reception |